ABOUT THE KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

DR. ALMA FLOR ADA

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1998 • GENERAL SESSION

Renowned educator, author and storyteller, Dr. Alma Flor Ada, is currently professor of education and doctoral studies at the University of San Francisco. Originally from Cuba, her many accomplishments include the completion of her doctoral studies at the Pontificia Universidad Católica del Peru and post-doctoral study at Harvard University. She has dedicated herself to the writing of children's literature in Spanish and English. Dr. Alma Flor Ada's many works include The Lizard and the Sun, Yours Truly, Goldilocks, Gathering the Sun, I Love Saturdays y Domingos, Dear Peter Rabbit, Días y días de poesía, and her newest publication, Under the Royal Palms. Dr. Ada will be available for book signings after her presentation.

MICHELE SERROS

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1998 • LUNCHEON

Michele Serros is a bright new voice in the world of multicultural literature. Serros, author of Chicana Falsa, has written a collection of short stories and poems with a witty, insightful, honest look into the life of one woman from Oxnard, California. Her spoken-word performance details the struggles of growing up torn between two worlds. Serros captures the uncertainty, pain, and humor of growing up Chicana in Southern California and paints a vivid portrait of the sights and sounds that impressed her along the way. Ms. Serros will be available for book signings after her presentation.
