STUDENT WRITING CONTEST

The Student Writing Contest for the CABE 2007 Conference in Long Beach, California, will focus on the many advantages of being bilingual. The theme for this year's writing contest is "Bilingual Education: EDUCATING EVERY STUDENT: INVESTING IN TOMORROW, TODAY". Students are encouraged to approach this writing contest in an imaginative and meaningful manner, expressing themselves in either their primary language or English. Teachers can assist students in focusing on the theme by exploring how being bilingual and using their creative bilingual voices will enhance their opportunities for learning, career, leadership, self-esteem, as well as the development of their cultural legacy in their future. The use of the writing process is encouraged (prewriting, sharing, revising, editing, and publishing) to develop a meaningful and expressive literary piece. Each literary piece should focus on the theme and demonstrate final editing quality.

All students who enter the writing contest will be acknowledged for their efforts. Winners will be selected by a committee in four grade level categories, K-2nd, 3rd-5th, 6th-8th and 9th-12th, based on the following criteria:

- ★ Content — How well the writing captures the essence of the theme
- ★ Language — The use of expressive, authentic, rich language
- ★ Genre — The creative use of literary forms (such as short essay, poetry, narrative, biography or song)

Please read the following directions for submitting student writings:

- ★ Writings should be typed double-spaced, three pages maximum.
- ★ Student writings in any language may be submitted. Translations must accompany the entry with an explanation as to who translated the writing piece. Translations may not improve or alter the original writing.
- ★ Students must have been in a bilingual program at some time during the last five years.
- ★ Winners will be notified by January 12, 2007 and will be asked to submit a black and white photo for the conference program.
- ★ Winners will read their essay or excerpts from the essay at the CABE 2007 Student Writing Contest Luncheon, to be held on Friday, March 16, 2007 at the Long Beach Convention Center.
- ★ Savings Bonds of $200 will be awarded to the division winners in categories K-2nd, 3rd-5th, 6th-8th.
- ★ The winner for the 9-12th grade category will receive a $1,000 scholarship.
- ★ Winners will receive transportation (if needed) and admission to the CABE Conference Student Awards Luncheon for themselves, two family members (one must be an adult) and one teacher.

Writing and Student Nomination Forms should be received by the December 15, 2006 deadline

SEAL OF EXCELLENCE AWARD APPLICATION

The California Association for Bilingual Education is proud to announce that it is accepting nominations for the CABE 2007 Seal of Excellence Award. The Seal of Excellence Award was inaugurated in 1996 to honor exemplary bilingual education programs throughout the State. This prestigious award honors schools that have established effective programs for their English Learners.

To receive the CABE Seal of Excellence Award each school must meet the established rigorous criteria by providing:

- Substantial evidence of the bilingual language proficiency (English and other language) and academic achievement for students in the program;
- A description of (a) the comprehensive and enriched instructional program that includes English Language Development, primary language instruction, and specially designed academic instruction in English; and (b) how it provides continuous and coherent services for all grade levels;
- A description of the professional development plan for certificated staff and how staff use effective, research-based instructional strategies;
- A description, with examples, of how the comprehensive curriculum for English Learners is aligned to the standards at all grade levels;
- An effective school-home-community collaboration that empowers parents to become active participants in their children's education.

If your school can demonstrate and submit documentation of the above criteria, we invite you to fill out the attached application and return it to CABE by November 30, 2006.

Awards will be presented to the winning schools at the Seal of Excellence Banquet, CABE 2007 Conference in Long Beach on March 16, 2007.

The evaluation rubric and appeal process are available on the CABE website at www.bilingualeducation.org.
