annual conference

Join us for CABE 2006

McEnery Convention Center
San José, California

March 1-4, 2006

Register online at www.bilingualeducation.org

The California Association for Bilingual Education invites you to attend its 31st annual conference providing intensive professional development opportunities for administrators, teachers, para-educators, parents and community members working with second language learners. As part of a long-term, coherent professional development plan, this conference provides an ideal way for principals and administrators in charge of professional development to motivate teachers and parents towards becoming "highly qualified" to work with English Learners and to develop the professional expertise necessary for students' academic success. CABE 2006 allows teachers to meet the NCLB requirement. Teachers who attend the full four-day conference of standards aligned professional development can accrue up to 20 hours (earning 5 points) towards completing the California High Objective Uniform State Standard of Evaluation (HOUSSE).

It is not too late to register for the premiere professional development event of the year. Join us in celebrating our 31 years of service on behalf of English Learners. Register online at www.bilingualeducation.org for additional savings (also see full registration brochure on CABE website for extended conference highlights) or call Ruth Navarette at (626) 814-4441 for registration information!

Film Screening

Thursday, March 2, 2006 at 5:00 p.m.

Walkout, the much anticipated true story of a group of brave Chicano students who staged a dramatic walkout during the turbulent '60's directed by Edward James Olmos (Oscar® nominee), has completed production and will be premiered at CAFE 2006 in San Jose before it debuts on HBO later in March.

The film, set against the background of the civil rights movement of 1968, a year of youth protest around the world, focuses specifically on the courage of a group of Chicano student protesting the injustices of the public school system in the East Los Angeles High Schools.

Along the way, the students learn powerful lessons about embracing their own identity and standing up for what they believe in. Set in 1968, a tumultuous year that shook America to its foundation, Walkout is a vivid reminder that people can change the world.

Sal Castro, the popular young teacher who worked with the students during the walkout will be honored with a CAFE Board Award during this featured event.

Administrative Leadership Symposium

Educating English Language Learners:
A Synthesis of Research Evidence

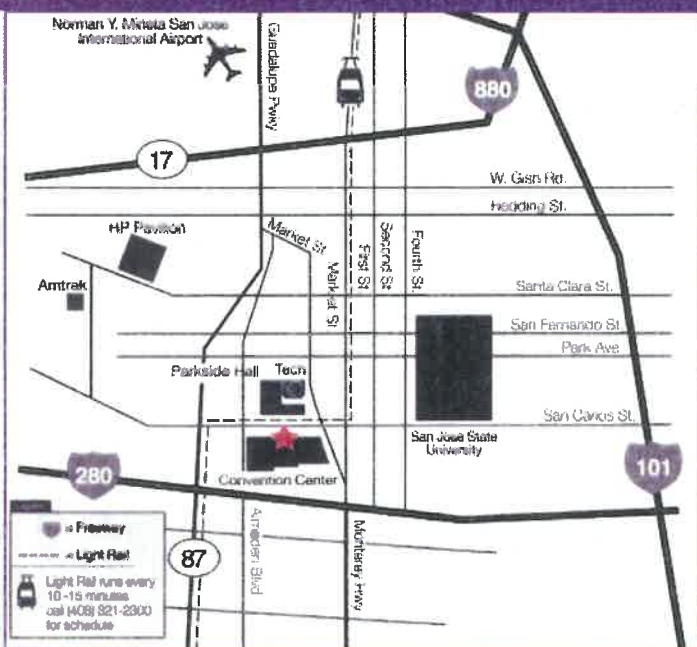

A panel of well-known researchers will present their findings from a synthesis of the scientific research on English Learners in the areas of: Oral Language Development among English Learners; Literacy Development in English Learners: Crosslinguistic and Crossmodal Relationships; and on the Academic Achievement of English Learners. This session will be an interactive discussion of the major research findings in the area of quality programs and indicators for student success.

California Department of Education Technical Assistance Room

The English Learner Accountability Unit and the Language Policy and Leadership Office encourage parents, teachers and district representatives to stop by their technical assistance room where they will provide information and answer questions regarding legal requirements for educational services to English Learners. Information from the USDE Office for Civil Rights and the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing will also be available.

Downtown San José

Getting to the McEnery Convention Center

Whether you're traveling by plane, rail or car, getting to San José is simple. Our accessible roadways, convenient airport and affordable public transportation system reveals our commitment to the travel industry.

The Norman Y. Mineta San José International Airport, located only three miles from downtown San José, offers nearly 200 daily non-stop flights from all major U.S. cities. Weather delays are virtually unheard of and our on-time flight performance is practically flawless.

Getting to and around San José is effortless via four major freeways (Highway 101, Interstate 280, 880 and 680) and our modern public transportation system. Caltrain, light rail and a fleet of buses navigate throughout San José and into neighboring cities, and reasonably priced rental cars and taxi services are also available.

Please visit www.sanjose.org for more details on transportation.
