Wednesday

Opening General Session (4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m.)

Keynote Address: Elena Featherston

Featherston's writings have appeared in numerous magazines and journals and she is the editor of the groundbreaking anthology Skin Deep: Women Writing on Color, Culture and Identity. She currently divides her time between speaking, training and work on Weaving Change: A Guide to Personal and Political Transformation, a book that fuses art, politics and spirituality as tools for social change.

Thursday

General Session (8:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.)

Distinguished Keynote Speaker:
Jonathan Kozol

Jonathan Kozol will speak of the formidable challenges facing children of minorities and English Learners in the age of testing and strict accountability decreed by NCLB. Kozol's purpose is to strive for a public call for social change, and to guide the cause once it has arisen.

CABE Educator of the Year Luncheon

Friday

General Session (8:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.)

Distinguished Keynote Speaker: Ron Takaki

In 1997, Ron Takaki attended a White House meeting with President Bill Clinton to help brainstorm ideas for his major speech, "One America in the 21st Century: The President's Initiative on Race." Significantly, Clinton took the dialogue on race beyond the black-white binary, and presented an inclusive definition of Americans as a diverse people belonging to one nation.

Saturday

General Session (9:00 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.)

A Literacy & Music Event

Distinguished Keynote Speaker:
Rubén Martínez

Ruben Martinez will examine the process, taking place at this very moment, of cultural change and what it represents everywhere from pop to classroom.

Exhibit Hall featuring instructional materials for English Learners

CABE Seal of Excellence Banquet featuring outstanding and effective programs for English Learners

CABE after hours: Seal of Excellence Dance

A very special literacy and music event is planned for Super Saturday during CABE 2007. Come meet and interact with popular children's authors and musicians. Learn about how they write books and/or music and how you can use their books/songs in your instructional program to celebrate diversity and have students become actively engaged as readers and even writers of their own stories.

Parent Hospitality Center

CABE' 2007 is pleased to offer a special series of leadership workshops for parents during the conference on topics ranging from "No Child Left Behind" to "Helping Your Child Prepare for College". The Rosalía Salinas Hospitality Room, equipped with refreshments, materials, networked computers, technical assistants and trainers, will also be available exclusively for parents to give them an orientation to the conference and to facilitate their on-site and virtual networking.

Administrative Leadership Symposium

This session will be an interactive discussion of the major issues and policies impacting diverse background students. Administrative leaders will have an opportunity to discuss the formidable challenges facing children of minorities and English Learners in schools in the age of testing and strict accountability decreed by NCLB.

California Department of Education Technical Assistance Room

The English Learner Accountability Unit and the Language Policy and Leadership Office encourage parents, teachers and district representatives to stop by their technical assistance room where they will provide information and answer questions regarding legal requirements for educational services to English Learners. Information from the USDE Office for Civil Rights and the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing will also be available

Getting to the Long Beach Convention and Entertainment Center

Whether you're traveling by plane, rail or car, getting to Long Beach is simple. Accessible roadways, convenient airport and affordable public transportation system reveals the commitment to the travel industry. The Los Angeles International or Long Beach Airport offer nearly 200 daily
