Student Writing

The Student Writing for the CABE 2021 Virtual Annual Conference, will focus on the many advantages of being bilingual/biliterate.

- Students are encouraged to approach their writing with an imaginative and meaningful manner, expressing themselves in both English and their second language.
- The use of the writing process is encouraged (prewriting, sharing, revising, editing, and publishing) to develop a meaningful and expressive literary piece.
- All essays must be submitted online.
- Teachers and parents can support students in focusing on the theme by exploring how their bilingual/biliteracy skills will enhance their future opportunities and make their dreams come true.
- Each literary piece should focus on the theme and demonstrate final editing quality.
